Director's Note

"It Takes All Sorts to Make a World"

That line from this year's spring musical Honk!, was the first thing I thought of when I chose this show. Honk! Is an incredible journey that takes us through one of today's hot topics – bullying. As we watch Ugly go along his journey, we not only see how cruel bullying can be, but we also learn that difficulties and obstacles in life can be overcome through self-acceptance. This show has so many positive aspects that I could not pass up, as both a Theatre Director and a professional counselor.

Coming "home" to Nazareth is a dream come true for me. My last two years of high school here were spent on the NAHS stage in Oklahoma and West Side Story, and those were two of the most incredible years of my life on stage. My theatrical career started at Nazareth, carried me into college, community theatre, auditions in NY, training in Philadelphia and eventually to teaching dance and drama at a professional regional theatre – PA Youth Theatre. I found who I was as an individual on the stage at Nazareth, heard my calling as a performer, and both developed and refined my craft. Being able to use what I learned here, under the direction of Mr. Applegate, with the current students is a both a blessing and an honor.

Coming into a theatre program cold and brand new is never easy – but the students of the NAHSTT have been warm, welcoming and incredible to work with. The talent I see at each rehearsal on this stage blows me away, and I couldn't be more excited for you to see and appreciate their incredible hard work!

Thanks goes out to the Administration of NAHS for not only giving me this opportunity but also supporting me in every way possible. Special thanks go out to Sandra Jameson and Sue Durner– thank you for answering all my questions and making sure everything stays together and gets paid on time! Mr. Kratzer and Mr. Erdie, what an amazing job with taking my ideas and turning the stage into a barnyard! Mr. Felix (as a former student I will never be able to call you by your first name), thank you for walking alongside me as a colleague; I am honored to work with you! John and Shari, thanks for coming in and helping with the important finishing touches. Mr. A, I am forever indebted to you for helping to instill a love of theatre and the performing arts within me. And finally to my husband and children, thank you for sharing me with this incredible cast. I promise I'll be home at night now for a while! ☺

Now, sit back, relax and have a thoroughly enjoyable time!

Sincerely,
Beth Peters-Ferrara "BP"
